UNION OFFICIAL CLAIMS STEEL STRIKE 90 PERCENT EFFECTIVE

William Foster, Secretary of Steel Workers' Committee, Says Plants Are Closed Everywhere

MANY MILLS IN OPERATION

Steel Companies' Officials Assert Not More Than 15 or 25 Percent Answered Call

AMERICAN WORKERS REPORT

All of Those Striking Are Foreigners or Common Laborers—Each Claim Advantage

(By United Press.)

The nation wide strike of union steel workers began today.

Early reports were to show whether the walkout will develop into America's greatest industrial war.

In some districts all plants closed while in others mills were in full operation. No disorders were reported today.

William Foster, secretary of the steel worker's national committee, issued a statement in Pittsburgh claiming the strike was "90 percent effective."

Officials of the United States Steel Corporation were not expected to issue a statement until later in the day.

The situation in various steel centers were as follows:

Pittsburg and surrounding towns—The reports were that but few workers struck. Union officials reported but few men walked out.

McKeesport, Pa.—Mills still in operation. Three thousand sworn in as deputies.

Sharon, Pa.—All plants closed.

Cleveland, Ohio—Union officials claimed 19,000 men struck and probably 25,000 out by night. Two plants closed at midnight.

Youngstown, Ohio—Five thousand workers quit Sunday. Mills still in operation.

Gary, Ind.—Work suspended in practically all plants. Secretary of the labor organization declared 85 percent of the men out.

Chicago—Six of the Illinois steel companies furnaces were cold.

Birmingham, Ala.—All four plants are operating.

Both Claim Advantage

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Strike leaders and steel companies heads alike claim the advantage today when what is one of the biggest industrial struggles the country has known, was but a few hours old.

William Foster, secretary of the steel workers' committee, claimed that the strike was 90 percent effective. He included the Pittsburgh district in this statement.

Foster declared that plants were closed down everywhere.

Steel companies' officials viewed the situation optimistically and asserted that not more than 15 or 25 percent of their men had answered the strike call.

Ninety-five percent of the American employees reported for work as usual this morning. All of those striking were foreigners or common laborers.

RESOLUTION DEMANDS STRIKE INVESTIGATION

Washington, Sept. 22.—Investigation of the steel strike was proposed today in a resolution introduced by Senator Kenyon, Iowa.

The resolution directs the senate committee on education and labor to ascertain the reasons for the strike and whether any federal action should be taken to meet the situation.

OUTSTANDING FEATURES OF THE STEEL STRIKE

Cause of strike—refusal to recognize unions.

Demands of unions—right to bargain for workers as to hours, wages and working conditions.

Approximate number of employees in 1918—268,710.

Number of plants involved in strike order—145.

Territory covering big strike—Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Colorado and Alabama.

Wages—Unskilled labor, lowest $3.50; highest $6.00. Skilled labor, lowest $7.00; highest $70 to $80 a day.

Companies involved—United States Steel Corporation and its subsidiaries.

A blast furnace was closed down here, officials said, but they claimed that not a single finishing mill closed.

It was estimated that about 500,000 steel workers in Allegheny county were working, but on the basis of the steel companies' figures from 10,000 to 25,000 are on strike.

E. H. Gary Refuses to Talk

New York, Sept. 22.—Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the steel corporation, received newspaper men at his office here today but made no statements. He said that if any statement was issued today it would be before three o'clock.

Gary's manner indicated confidence that the strike situation would mean little loss of money to the corporation.

About 50,000 Out in Ohio

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Between forty and fifty thousand steel workers are on strike in Ohio today, according to reports by union and steel men's officials and police.

Approximately 200,000 are out in Cleveland, according to reports and in Canton only 400 are out.

Reports from Youngstown stated strikers numbered all the way from five to twenty thousand.

SAYS 35 PERCENT OF GARY MEN ARE AT WORK

First Statement by Officials of Steel Works in Northern Indiana Make This Claim

CITIZENS AID GARY POLICE

(By United Press.)

Gary, Ind., Sept. 22.—Between 50 percent and 85 percent of the 22,000 steel workers in the Calumet district answered the strike call today.

Union officials claimed 18,000 men walked out. Company officials admitted that less than 11,000 reported for duty.

The first statement issued by officials of the Gary works of the Illinois Steel company today said that 35 percent of the men are at work. Many of those who stayed out today have called on the telephone and said that they will be back tomorrow. The situation is expected to improve gradually. The officials declared the situation looked favorable and that they were satisfied.

Union leaders claimed a big victory when the engineers joined the strike. Ninety-five of the engineers were out. The strike completely tied up the plant.

No disorders in the entire district were reported. Police officials stated that they have not made a single

THIRD STREET TO BE FINISHED THIS FALL

Roy Evans, Foreman, Says Has Assurance of Obtaining Enough Cement to Complete Job

ANOTHER CAR IS ON THE ROAD

Enough cement has been obtained to finish the Third street improvement, and there are now prospects of the street being completed and opened before cold weather, according to an announcement today by Roy Evans of Casey, Ill., foreman of the job.

Mr. Evans told Councilman A. P. Wagoner a few days ago that if a shipment of cement did not arrive in a few days, he was going to ship the mixer to Illinois where the man by whom he is employed has another contract. Fortunately, however, he has assurances of receiving enough cement to complete the contract. One car load has reached Rushville and another is on the road.

George C. Miller of Lebanon, who has the contract for paving Third street, has sub-let the contract to J. W. Echison of Casey, Ill., by whom Mr. Evans is employed.

PIONEER OF ORANGE TOWNSHIP SUCCEUMBS

Funeral for Newton L. Peck, Who Died at Son's Home Saturday Afternoon, is Held Today

SON AND 4 DAUGHTERS LEFT

Funeral services for Newton L. Peck, age sixty-six years, a pioneer of Orange township, who died Saturday afternoon at the home of his son, Ephraim Peck, near Moscow, were held this afternoon at one o'clock at the late residence, with the Rev. R. A. Urey in charge. He had been ill for some time with the afflictions incident to old age and his death did not come as a surprise to his immediate friends and relatives.

Mr. Peck resided in Orange township all of his life and was one of the respected citizens of the community. He was engaged most of the time as a contracting carpenter, although he owned a farm and managed it part of the time.

In addition to the son at whose home he died, Mr. Peck is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Rhoda Selby of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Lou Wagoner of Shelbyville and Mrs. Phoebe Halterman and Mrs. Emma Buell.

NO USE FOR KINGS

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 22.—"To hell with royalty. Don't ask me to invite kings, kaisers and czars," said Mayor Howay, socialist leader of the Association of Commerce, whose officials requested him to extend the invitation to King Albert and the queen of Belgium to visit this city during their tour of the United States.

LAND OWNER ASKS FOR AN INJUNCTION

David M. Templeton Alleges Tenant on His Place Will Not Allow Him to Sow Wheat

JEHU M. CRAIG IS DEFENDANT

Threatens Harm to Anyone Who Comes on Farm For That Purpose—Lease Expires March 1

A new suit has been filed in circuit court, it being the case of David F. Templeton vs Jehu M. Craig, asking temporary injunction and damages to the extent of $500. A request was also made, asking that a restraining order be issued until further notice could be served. Judge Sparks granted the restraining order, until tomorrow at nine o'clock.

Mr. Templeton's complaint alleges that Craig has leased by contract, his 160 acre farm, from March 1, this year, to continue for one year. Through some kind of trouble, it seems that Mr. Templeton wishes to change tenants, but does not want to do so until the expiration of the contract.

In the meantime, the complaint states, Mr. Templeton wishes wheat sown in an 80 acre tract, and as the land belongs to him, he has instructed Fred Mohles to put the field in wheat. The present tenant, Mr. Craig, threatens to kill or do great bodily harm, according to the complaint, to anyone who attempts to sow the wheat. Mr. Templeton says that he is not violating any part of their contract by having the field placed in wheat by some one other than the tenant, as the tenant will be removed on March 1, and would not be there at harvest time.

Mr. Templeton asks $500 damages, caused by the delay and trouble with the tenant, and further asks that a temporary injunction be granted.

Nothing was going on in court today, but the case of the state against Herman Osborn, Ralph Gard and Leslie Sailor, will be tried tomorrow. The young men are charged with assault and battery, and is an appeal from the police court, where Osborn received a sentence of 90 days in the penal farm.

The alleged assault was on Irene and Violet Maple, who were struck by rocks one Saturday night a few weeks ago, while in company with other boys on their way home. The attorney for the defendants took an appeal on August 7th, after a sentence had been given the boys.

The grand jury meets again tomorrow, at which time it is expected several reports, calling for indictments will be issued.

RESTAURANT FIGHT LEADS TO ARREST

Charley Pea is Held on Charge of Assault and Battery—In Fight With Owen McKee

TO BE ARRAIGNED LATE TODAY

A fight in the Peoples restaurant, owned by John Kelley, in West Second street, about nine o'clock Saturday night, caused quite a lot of excitement, and resulted in the arrest of Charley Pea, who assaulted Owen McKee Jr., who is an employe in the restaurant.

The fight started over some trouble which it was reported to have been developing for some time and on Saturday night, Pea made an assault on McKee. The arrest was made this morning by Police Chief Wilfong, who filed the affidavit, alleging assault and battery. Pea was to be arraigned this afternoon at four o'clock in police court.

TOURING CAR IS STOLEN

Machine Belonging to Manilla Man is Taken at Shelbyville

An Overland touring car belonging to Walter Holbrook of Manilla was taken Saturday night, and he has been unable so far to locate it. Mr. Holbrook and family motored to Shelbyville Saturday night, and parked the machine in front of the Todd Clothing store, in the public square, and when he went to get it, to return home found that the machine had been taken. The Shelbyville police have notified surrounding cities, and a description of the car has been sent, in an effort to find the stolen machine.

CEREMONY MARKS END OF M. E. DEBT

Final Note Against Congregation is Burned at Rally Services Held in Arlington Sunday

WEATHER LESSENS CROWD

The Rev. Daniel Ryan is Instructed to Ask For Return of Pastor, F. M. Westhafer

The Rev. W. B. Crawley of the Christian church of Arlington, gave the principal address at the rally day service and ceremony of burning the late note of the M. E. church debt, held at the Arlington M. E. church yesterday. On account of the inclemency of the weather, not as large a crowd as was expected attended the service. Mr. Crawley's address, which was a very forceful sermon, was followed by a short speech by a former pastor of the church, the Rev. Daniel Ryan of the Garthage M. E. church.

At the morning and evening services the Rev. F. M. Westhafer delivered the addresses, which were the last before the annual conference held this week in Indianapolis. At noon a bountiful pitch-in dinner was served and people were present from Pleasant Ridge, Manilla, Wayne county and Franklin.

The services Sunday, in addition to observing the cancellation of the church's debt, also marked the end of the conference year. On motion of the members of the official board, at the afternoon service, the Rev. Mr. Ryan was instructed to carry the greetings of the congregation to Bishop Anderson and the district superintendent, Dr. J. M. Walker, at the annual session of the Indiana conference, which opens in Indianapolis tomorrow, asking for the return of the Rev. Mr. Westhafer as pastor of the Arlington church. All present, of all churches, signified their desire to have him remain another year.

There were two accessions to the membership at the morning service. At the afternoon meeting the Rev. Mr. Ryan, who was formerly pastor at Arlington, was the guest of honor. The congregation sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner", and the ceremony of burning the last note on the church's indebtedness was conducted by the trustees, T. Royal Lee, S. S. Offutt and Fred McFatrige. The Rev. Mr. Ryan then led in a prayer of thanksgiving.

Five Clerks Make Resolutions After Being "Stung" on Chickens

Five clerks in a Rushville dry goods store have resolved to buy no more chickens until the fowls are weighed before their eyes. Saturday they bargained for five 3-pound chickens from a farmer's wife, and paid thirty cents a pound, on foot, for them. When the chickens which had been dressed, were delivered, they weighed from a pound and eight ounces to a pound and ten ounces each, including the newspapers in which they were wrapped. The clerks learned that the shrinkage should not amount to more than a half pound on chickens of that weight. The proprietor of the same store bought one alive, which was represented to weigh three pounds, but the actual weight was two pounds and eight ounces, including the flour sack in which it was delivered.

Your Mental Picture of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)

Is it a thoroughly lubricated machine, owned and controlled by one man, who is able to manipulate it as he sees fit with figure-heads to do his bidding by push button control?—

OR—

Is it an organization of men animated by ideals of service, human sympathies, and a far seeing understanding of conditions in a highly specialized branch of industry?

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is owned and controlled by 4649 stockholders, not one holding as much as 10 per cent of the total stock.

It is managed by 7 men, who, individually, have won their way to the top by giving each day the kind of service which the public found it profitable to pay for.

The policy of the Company in its relation to the public is laid down by these 7 men, which is to render the individual consumer in the eleven states served by the Company the kind of service they demand and find it profitable to pay for.

It is the earnest desire of these 7 men, holding the trusteeship of management, to intensify the usefulness to the public of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), and to broaden the scope of its service so that the Company may discharge its obligations as a public servant in a manner satisfactory to the stockholders and beneficial to the world at large.

Food and Frills.

We are told that there are not enough people engaged in the copious production of essentials, and that this partly accounts for high prices.

We got around the difficulty during the war by forbidding the production of nonessentials. If this were done now it would throw a number of people out of work, but they would soon turn to the production of essentials, and supply the shortage.

Unfortunately, there are many of us who demand the nonessentials, and are thus responsible for the shortage of essentials. The richest man can consume only a small quantity of food, and wear only a few clothes. But he can soak a fortune in jewelry and automobiles, and it is the wages spent in producing commodities that creates the profiteer and sends prices up.

Cut out the luxuries to a reasonable extent. We must choose between jewels and Johnny-cake, between pearls and pie.

Balance of Power.

The troubles about England's six votes to America's one really started in the British colonies. The English do not worry much about representation at the league council. They care very little, when the truth is told, about the league at all.

It was a South African who made the stipulation. The British colonies are not suspicious of America so much as they are of England. And they do not mean to be bound by England's vote any more than they do by America's. They want votes of their own. It is even possible that they will be found voting with America instead of with England at the council.

When Cops Walk Out

We may congratulate ourselves in Rushville that we do not employ a large police force. If the sheriff of the county went on strike, it would probably not result in promiscuous looting by hoodlums up and down the streets.

This has been the condition in Boston, where the police force recently declared a strike; and all the local toughs and hard-boiled eggs went out on a window smashing expedition.

If we have need for police action on a grand scale in Rushville all that is necessary is to muster a posse of amateur policemen, who do not belong to a union, and are not likely to strike. They will simply do the job that is to be done, and return to their ordinary avocations upon dismissal.

We have this advantage over places like Boston, Chicago, New York, and other large towns: with us law and order from part of everybody's responsibility. Reinforcement of the law is not a trade in which a few professionals specialize. We are all ready to do police work here, because it is natural for us to insist on public orderliness—not because we are paid to maintain it.

Famous Contralto Here Next Week

Miss Amy Ellerman, the famous contralto who will appear at a concert here next week, is noted among her many friends and admirers as the "self-made girl." She is thoroughly typical of the great Mid-West and all who know her say it is impossible not to fall in love with her at sight. Her remarkable character is as winning as her fine voice.

Born and raised on her father's ranch near Yankton, S. D., at three years old she was so completely at home on the back of a horse she would ask to be put on the wildest bronchos and would outgallop her father in rounding up the herds.

Before she had reached her teens she could cast a lariat and throw a steer as intrepidly and neatly as the best of the cowboys. She could also be as quick with a pistol and deadly with a rifle as the coolest and oldest hand.

Her unusual independence of character became evident equally early. She always preferred boys' clothing and dressed as a girl only at home in the evening or when visiting. Rather than accept "pin money" without earning it she obtained all the money she needed by following the huskers during harvest and selling her gleanings to her father at so much a bushel.

One of her greatest pleasures now, outside of her music, is to return for a vacation to the old ranch life and dressed as a man, put in a spell at broncho busting or, with big hip boots on, go duck hunting.

The Fleming Sisters Trio appear jointly with Miss Amy Ellerman at the Main Street Christian church Friday, October 3d.—Adv.

Constance Talmadge in The Shuttle.

Constance Talmadge, now in California, where she is working during the winter months, recently paid a visit to the Hollywood studios, and hobnobbed for several hours with numerous old friends.

She was greeted with acclaim by Douglas Fairbanks and his director, Alan Dwan, while Frank E. Woods, supervisor of productions, welcomed her with open arms. Albert Cowles a member of the scenario department and Harvey Thew, who wrote the scenario for "The Shuttle" with Margaret Turnbull, were also among the welcoming party.

Miss Talmadge visited the studio where Mary Pickford was at work, and not only spent a few minutes chatting with her, but also renewed acquaintance with Marshall Neilan, her director.

"One of the strangest things I saw on visiting Hollywood," declared Miss Talmadge, "was the skeleton of the great 'Intolerance' set about which cluster so many memories of the days when I played the Mountain Girl. Literally, Babylon has not yet fallen. It stands there, colossal but its glory and rich color are missing like people who once gave it life. It made me feel sad for a time."

Constance Talmadge will appear here in "The Shuttle" at the Princess Theatre tonight; it was adapted from the novel of the same name by Frances Hodgson Burnett, directed by Rollin Sturgeon, and is being distributed by Select Pictures.

16th Episode Tonight

The sixteenth episode of "The Red Glove" will be shown at the Mystic theater tonight, together with an L-Ko comedy, "Ladies in Line," a news reel and a fashion picture. The latter film will be repeated tomorrow, and will share a place on the program with "The Midnight Patrol," a seven-reel feature picture telling a vivid story of Chinese life in a western city. This feature will also be shown Wednesday with an Arbuckle comedy.

At the opening of "The Midnight Patrol," Sergt. Duncan, in charge of the Chinatown police squad, is killed in a raid on the den where Fu Wang, a Chinese who rules like a czar and shares his illegitimate profits with Jim Murdock, a political boss. Duncan is killed and his assistant, Terrance Shannon, takes his place. Murdock and Wu Fang try to discredit him because they fear his power.

About this time Murdock and Wu Fang are expecting a shipment of opium. In order to safeguard its arrival they tell Shannon that they are holding Patsy O'Connell, a young lady whom Shannon admires, captive in Wu Fang's den and that she will be harmed unless Shannon keeps out of the way until the shipment of opium is unloaded. Terrance believes that duty comes first however, and leads a raid on Wu Fang's underground den. He is assisted by "Chink" Ross, a white man who has been thrown down by Wu Fang.

When Shannon breaks into Wu Fang's den, Fang grapples with him and overpowers him. Fang and his assistants then prepare to throw Shannon into a pit filled with live rats. Just at this time O'Shea rushes in with the reserves and saves Shannon and Patsy O'Connell from the horrible death that Wu Fang had planned for them. Wu Fang is killed and Murdock is captured. Shortly after this fete Shannon is made chief of police, but not until he and Patsy have discovered their love for each other.

It was late October in Flanders when the King's Own advanced in spite of machine gun and shrapnel fire and a drenching rain. A small town, or rather the remains of it, was taken, one of the Belgian villages that had stood the shock of four years of shell fire. True to tradition the Irish Guard led the way. Upon entering the ruins of the once beautiful village, a fiery-headed Irish boy was neatly scalped by the last machine gun fire of the hurrying Huns. He fell unconscious in the street. Two buddies from the Emerald Isle administered first aid. Eventually, he rallied to the restoratives and opened his hazy blue eyes. Somewhat dazed he looked about him.

"Where am Oi?" was his first question.

In order to comfort him one of his fighting friends replied, "You're home, Pat."

Pat slowly turned his head, viewed the ruins about him and remarked:

"How long have we had Home Rule?"

Brining Preserves Food When Other Means Fail

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

One of the oldest methods of preserving food is by salting or fermenting it. When the rush of late summer work finds the housekeeper with more garden products on hand than she can can or dry, brining is the solution of her difficulties. A bucket of brine will keep the extra vegetables until a less busy season when more time is available to prepare them for use.

All that is necessary for brining, U. S. Department of Agriculture specialists say, is a scalded crock or bucket, a brine made of two pounds of salt to one gallon of water, a cloth and plate or board, and a heavy weight. For best results vegetables should be blanched in hot water five minutes before brining. For some vegetables a weaker brine will do. With string beans and a few other vegetables, a weaker brine with a little vinegar added will give satisfactory results.

Wash the product, if it is not blanched, and put it in the container; add the brine, put the cloth over the top and place the weighted board or plate on the material being brined to hold it below the surface of the liquid. Brine of this strength will act as a preservative without causing any change in the vegetable.

When the vegetables preserved in this way are desired for use they may be brought back by soaking a few hours in fresh water. They are then ready to prepare for table use. Dandelions, beet tops, turnip tops, spinach, chard, kale, cabbage, string beans and green peas and corn are vegetables which may be satisfactorily preserved by this method.

When vegetables are packed dry with two or three pounds of salt to every hundred pounds of material, as in the making of sauerkraut, or are covered with a brine, as in the preparation of dill pickles, the sugar in the vegetables is extruded from them and fermented by the bacteria that are present. After this action has gone on to a certain point, enough lactic acid is formed to kill the bacteria and to prevent any further change in the material, provided certain precautions are taken to prevent the growth of mould. The lactic acid gives the fermented material a characteristic flavor which is relished by many and it has no harmful effect. It is the same acid which is in sour milk.

If vegetables are covered with a very strong brine or packed with a fairly large amount of salt there is no lactic-acid fermentation and the growth of other forms of bacteria and moulds are prevented.

In vinegar pickling the acetic acid of the vinegar acts like the lactic acid and prevents the growth of bacteria or moulds.

The essential points in making sauerkraut are the use of only mature, sound cabbage, scrupulous cleanliness throughout the process, and proper care of the surface of the brine after fermentation is completed.

In making sauerkraut for home purposes the outer green leaves of the cabbage should be removed, just as in preparing the head for boiling. In addition all decayed or bruised leaves should be discarded and the core removed. If an instrument for this purpose is not available, it is advisable to quarter the heads and slice off the part of the core remaining on each quarter. The cabbage should be shredded by one of the hand-shredding machines sold for such purposes, or if one is not available the heads may be cut into thin slices with a saw cutler or a large knife.

The shredded cabbage should be packed immediately into a perfectly clean water-tight receptacle, such as a cedar or wine barrel, keg or tub. As it is packed into the receptacle add salt in the proportion of 1 pound of salt to 40 pounds of cabbage, distributing it evenly throughout the cabbage. Experiments have shown that approximately 2 1/2 pounds of salt to each 100 pounds of shredded cabbage give the best flavor to kraut.

When the barrel or crock is nearly full the cabbage should be pressed down as firmly as possible and covered with a clean board cover. It is advisable but not essential that clean cloth be placed over the cabbage before the cover is put into place. The salt soon extracts a considerable amount of the cabbage juice from the cabbage and a sufficient weight of clean brick or stone should be added to cause the brine to rise up to the wooden cover. Set the container aside until fermentation is complete, skim off any scum, that forms, and protect the surface by pouring over it a layer of paraffin.

If paraffin is not added, the scum develops very rapidly in warm weather and soon destroys the acid of the brine and the sauerkraut beneath. If the sauerkraut is made in the fall and stored in a cool place, there is no absolute necessity of a layer of paraffin, since low temperature will prevent the growth of the organism which destroys lactic acid and causes decomposition. No doubt the popular idea that sauerkraut made from early cabbage will not keep is based upon the fact that the fermentation of sauerkraut made from such cabbage occurs in warm weather and the rapid growth of scum soon destroys both brine and kraut if the surface is not properly protected.

Every Team in Big League Has Men

New York, Sept. 22—A popular
pastime at the end of any baseball season is to comb over the teams in the National league and point out
what former Giants did in the way
of helping out rival clubs.

Small chance to overlook any club in this kind of a summing up. Every club in the league, with only one exception, is burdened with ex-New Yorkers. A pennant could fall to any of them and not escape the sympathy of the statistic fiend who figures how much the former Giant had to do with the victory.

On the Cincinnati club are Heinie
Groh, Eddie Rousch, Bill Rariden
and Slim Sallee.

Boston has on its payroll Hank
Gowdy, Dick Rudolph, Cecil Canesey,
Arthur Wilson and Walter Holke.
John Paul Jones is due to report
there after the International league season.

Ferd Schupp, Milton Stock and
Leon Ames are former Giants now
with the Cardinals.

The Cubs have Fred Merkle and
Dave Robertson.

With the Phillies are Gene, Paul-

and Jack Adams.

The Dodgers have Ernie Krueger,

But also take a look at the Giant lineup.

Hal Chase was originally a Yan-

of the White Sox, Buffalo Federals
and Cincinnati Reds.

Larry Doyle, Frank Frisch and

Rube Benton came from Cincin-

28 HOGS PENS FOUND IN THE CITY LIMITS

Crusade For Better Sanitary Conditions in Rushville Reveals This State of Affairs.

FORCE OWNERS TO MOVE THEM

The crusade for better sanitary conditions in Rushville, which is being waged by Dr. J. B. Kinsinger, secretary of the city board of health, and Inspector, Frank Havens, has revealed some startling things, as it was found that there were 28 people within the city limits who were guilty of having hog pens.

Inspector Havens announced today that a complete clean up of the hog pens have been made, and that most of the people were given three days in which to make the necessary change. In the future if any pens are found within the city limits, the owner will be arrested, as it is a violation of the city ordinances. The clean up work will continue until the Health Officer is satisfied that the conditions here are alright for the winter.

Dainty place cards marked the places for the following guests: James Greisser, Janet Mauzy, Guy Clark, Elizabeth Fleehart, Jack Gunning, Lowell Green, Jr., Bonnie Jean Moore, Doris Crum, Martha Baxter, Frances Beale and Janice Schmidt of New-castle. Children's games were played during the afternoon.

FORTUNE SOLDIER MENACE TO PEACE

Statesmen Recognize That One of Greatest Dangers to Peace is Vast Horde Turned Loose

ATTEMPT TO CONTROL ARMY.

Individuals are Irresponsible, Native Country Having No Control Over Them

BY PERCY M. SARR

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, (By Mail).—The "soldier of fortune", once regarded as such a picturesque figure—a dare-devil who organized revolutions in Central and South America, the Balkans, and the wilds of Turkestan—is at a discount. There are too many of him, and far from being considered picturesque, he is now voted a general nuisance. The "Sunday Express" recently went farther, and voted him "a renegade, an enemy of civilization, and an international criminal" deserving of short shift and no ceremony in suppression.

Thoughtful statesmen and leaders of public opinion recognize that one of the greatest dangers to the preservation of world peace is the vast horde of adventurers turned loose on a world trying to turn from destruction to reconstruction. The break up of the Central Empires, and the compulsory reduction of their huge armies, has flooded Europe with an army of jobless officers whose only profession is that of a sword. Russia, Germany and Austria are the principal contributors, but England, France, Italy, Turkey and the Balkan states now officially demobilizing, may also be held guilty of "contributory negligence".

What are these soldiers of fortune to do? If they were numbered in tens they could probably "get a congenial job in Mexico. But even the French Foreign Legion could not take a fraction of their number. As it is they are "carrying on", and are more largely responsible than statesmen and policies for the continuance of the three-and-twenty or so wars still raging in Europe.

The recent real war naturally attracted all the original soldiers of fortune from all parts of the world. You can't legislate a born adventurer to the fireside and when the armistice was signed last November, many of these enthusiasts found another opening in the extraordinary army of campaigns being waged in Russia and the Baltic provinces. When the British War Office called for volunteers to rescue the marooned Archangel and Murmansk forces, it easily obtained all the men it wanted. The number of officers and ex-officers applying was remarkable. They were of the old adventure type, and were so determined to get back to war that they resigned commissions wholesale and enlisted in the ranks. All the units of the relief force had bunches of privates who had commanded battalions, batteries and companies in France and elsewhere.

Were they content to stay in such units there would be too much harm done, and they could doubtless obtain their fill of fighting, but the soldier of fortune abhors routine, and the ex-officer hungers for command. He usually obtains it in "nations, like the Estonians, Letts, Lithuanians, Czechoslovaks, Jugoslavs, Silesians, Ukrainians and others who had not hitherto had much opportunity of fighting as independent peoples were flattered by the invasion of military instructors, men who had won fame on the field of Armageddon, and once the soldier of fortune obtained a footing, he soon found openings for men of his own kind.

But the profession has become overcrowded, and already the world, tired of war is objecting. In the Australian parliament recently, members protested against the presence of Australian soldiers in the British North Russian force, and the Minister of Defence had to promise to endeavor to secure their return. The London "Daily Herald" protested against the attempt of the Lithuanian Military Mission in Paris to recruit a brigade of 6,000 Americans for service against Germany American and British volunteers, but there is a strong movement afoot for international action to prevent this armed intervention in the affairs of other nations by international would-be Napoleons.

The "Sunday Express" said "These individuals are irresponsible, their own native countries have no control or authority over them, and they are a perpetual menace to the maintenance of peace. They are the enemies of civilization, and civilization will have to concert measures to deal with the adventure as an international "Foreign Enlistment Law."

Simple Home Remedy Advised For Rose And Hay Fever

Anyone Can Make a Pint For Trifling Sum and Used In Time May Prevent Annual Attack

"No matter how severe your yearly attack be, no matter how distressing or humiliating—its intensity can be reduced to a harmless, mildness," says a Kentucky druggist who believes from what he has seen that this simple home made remedy is a most important discovery.

He has seen the most severe and apparently unconquerable cases reduced to what might be called a mild cold in twenty-four hours. In many cases where the patient started treatment a week or ten days before the expected attack the unwelcome yearly visitor failed to appear with anything like its usual intensity. People who want to try this new treatment can make a pint in a few minutes.

Pour one ounce of Mentholized Arcline into a pint bottle then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled. Gargle daily as directed and sniff or spray the nostrils twice daily. That's all there is to the treatment which so many sufferers have found to be a true friend. Mentholized Arcline in one ounce vials is dispensed by all the better pharmacies.

Many Prominent Men Come Out for Tanlac

Mayors, Judges, Bankers,
Lawyers, Doctors, Editors
and Ministers
Indorse It

FEEL IT THEIR DUTY TO TALK

They Come Forward and Unhesitatingly Tell Suffering Humanity
What Celebrated Medicine Has
Done for Them

IT is seldom, indeed, that men of prominence, especially men holding high public office, willingly express their indebtedness publicly to a proprietary medicine. Many prominent men, however, including supreme court judges, mayors of our leading cities, prominent state and county officials, bankers, lawyers, doctors, editors, leading educators, government officials and even ministers of the Gospel have deemed it their duty to come forward and tell the people what Tanlac has done for them.

These well-known men of affairs have recognized in this medicine a new discovery and a scientific triumph in the medical world. It is a well-known fact that these splendid indorsements have been given Tanlac time and time again and they will continue to be given just as often as new tests of its powers are made; and it also explains why numbers of the big drug firms of the country are ordering it exclusively in earload lots.

Doctor Prescribes It

Dr. J. T. Edwards, of Fayetteville, Ga., one of the best-known members of the medical profession in the state of Georgia, makes a statement that will undoubtedly produce a profound impression throughout the country.

"In my thirty years of actual practice as a licensed physician in the state of Georgia," says Dr. Edwards, "I have never seen anything to equal Tanlac as a medicine to produce results. I have no hesitancy in recommending this medicine and I am prescribing it for my patients almost every day."

Noted Texan Talks

Hon. Archie R. Anderson, ex-sheriff of Harris County, Texas, is unquestionably not only one of the best-known, but one of the most popular men that ever held office in Texas. He served the people in this important office for 15 consecutive years.

"I had the worst form of indigestion, suffered all the time from gas on my stomach and was continually belching up undigested food," said Mr. Anderson. "I suffered with neuralgic pains of the worst sort and nothing seemed to help me except in a temporary way."

"I began to feel better after taking my first bottle of Tanlac and have just now started on my third. I'm a different man already."

H. W. Hill, president of one of the leading banking institutions of South Pittsburg, Tenn., and one of the most successful bankers and business men in Tennessee, said:

ONE of the latest additions to the large and rapidly growing list of prominent men who have publicly indorsed Tanlac for the good it has done them, is the name of Hon. Frank V. Evans, former Mayor of Birmingham. Mr. Evans is one of the best-known men in public life in Alabama today, being at one time editor of one the South's greatest newspaper, the Birmingham Age-Herald. He was also examiner of public accounts of Alabama. In telling of the benefits he had derived from Tanlac, Mr. Evans said:

"For years I suffered with gastritis and indigestion in the worst form. I was habitually constipated and had pains in my shoulders and headache continually. My appetite left me almost entirely and everything I would eat hurt me. Finally I got to having awful attacks of acute indigestion, palpitation of the heart and smothering spells. For a long time I would have one or more of these spells every night and I would wake out of my restless sleep gasping for breath."

"I bought a bottle of Tanlac and to my surprise and gratification I began to feel relief after the first few doses. I kept taking the medicine and now my recovery is simply the talk of Birmingham."

CAMPAIGN FOR FUND COMPLETED

Prospects Are That The Roosevelt
Memorial Campaign Will Soon
be Oversubscribed

INDIANA'S SHARE $200,000

The Week of October 20 to 27th Has
Been Selected as the Period
For The State Drive

Indianapolis, Sept. 22.—With the completion of the state-wide organization that will direct the Roosevelt Memorial Campaign in Indiana, during the week of October 20-27, public interest in an appropriate tribute from this state to the life and memory of the distinguished former president, has grown to such proportions that the Committee, under William C. Bobbs, state Chairman is confident of collecting more than $200,000, which has been fixed as the Indiana share of the national memorial fund. The executive committee of the campaign meets next week and will then pass upon the suggestion made by George Ade that any over-subscription be applied to a suitable, exclusively Indiana memorial. In this connection members of the committee have joined in approving the application of at least a major portion of any over-subscription that may be collected, to the promotion of some sort of welfare work among the boys and girls of the state. This they say would be entirely consistent with the Roosevelt ideal of equal opportunity for the youth of America.

The announcement that the school teachers of the State will be authorized to accept voluntary contributions from Indiana children on Friday October twenty-fourth, has been favorably received, and although it may not be productive of any large sum of money—nor does the committee urge that it should be—it will serve to afford many patriotic boys and girls the opportunity of perpetuating their own names while contributing to the memorial of the former president. The committee has arranged for the enrollment of the names of all juvenile subscribers and the placing of the roll in the corner stone of the Roosevelt memorial at Washington.

Appropriate recitations, songs, and eulogies of the former president will be made a part of the program for Americanization day set aside by resolution of the State Board of Education, for Friday, October twenty-fourth. E. U. Graff, Superintendent of the Indianapolis Public Schools, is chairman of the committee in charge of the preparation of a program, which will be submitted to every teacher in Indiana and which will be the general outline of state-wide exercises in the public schools.

NEW PLAN WITH SERIES MONEY FOR THIS YEAR

Three Leaders of the League Will
Share in Receipts—Money of
First Five Games to be Pooled

REDS FIELD IS NOT LARGE

Cincinnati, Sept. 22.—Cincinnati and the White Sox are not the only teams that will get a slice of the 1919 World Series coin. According to the arrangement this year, sixty percent of the receipts of the first five games will go into a pool, which may be augmented by 50 percent of the player's share of any inter-city post-season series that may be played between the teams finishing second and third in each league.

Seventy-five percent of this pool will go to the 2 teams participating in the world's series, 60 percent to the winner and 40 percent to the loser. The remaining 25 percent of the pool will be apportioned between the second and third teams in each major league, 60 percent to the team finishing second and 40 percent to the club finishing third.

If Cincinnati had the facilities to accommodate an immense gathering it is probable, with the interest that has been shown in baseball all season, that attendance records for the

TO HEAR FIFTY-THREE CLEMENCY PETITIONS

State Board of Pardons Also Will
Consider 9 Reopened Cases at
Hearing Opening Today

FOUR MURDERS ASK REPRIEVE

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 22.—Fifty-three new petitions for clemency and nine re-opened cases will be heard by the state board of pardons at its sessions which opened today to continue through the week.

Four men sentenced to death for the murder of Herman Uecker, cashier of the First National Bank at Tolleston, Lake county, who asking clemency. They are Dan Trkulja, James H. Parker, Albert C. Batchelor and Thomas M. Batchelor.

On June 4, the four men together with Nick Trkulja, Lee W. Spears and John Bierlich attempted to rob the bank and the cashier was shot when his hand went under the counter.

Nick and Dan Trkulja were the first arrested in connection with the case, and the latter signed a confession implicating the other men. Nick was the only one pleading not guilty. He was sentenced to two to fourteen years for manslaughter. The four condemned men who are in death cells at the state prison say that Nick Trkulja is the one actually guilty of the murder.

Another interesting case before the board is that of Rae Krauss, in the woman's prison for like for poisoning her stepdaughter, Crystal Krauss, at Hartford City in 1904. This case has been before the board repeatedly and clemency has always been refused.

UNION OFFICIAL CLAIMS STEEL STRIKE 90 PERCENT EFFECTIVE

William Foster, Secretary of Steel Workers' Committee, Says Plants Are Closed Everywhere

MANY MILLS IN OPERATION

Steel Companies' Officials Assert Not More Than 15 or 25 Percent Answered Call

AMERICAN WORKERS REPORT

All of Those Striking Are Foreigners or Common Laborers—Each Claim Advantage

(By United Press.)

The nation wide strike of union steel workers began today.

Early reports were to show whether the walkout will develop into America's greatest industrial war.

In some districts all plants closed while in others mills were in full operation. No disorders were reported today.

William Foster, secretary of the steel worker's national committee, issued a statement in Pittsburgh claiming the strike was "90 percent effective".

Officials of the United States Steel Corporation were not expected to issue a statement until later in the day.

The situation in various steel centers were as follows:

Pittsburg and surrounding towns—The reports were that but few workers struck. Union officials reported but few men walked out.

McKeesport, Pa.—Mills still in operation. Three thousand sworn in as deputies.

Sharon, Pa.—All plants closed.

Cleveland, Ohio—Union officials claimed 19,000 men struck and probably 25,000 out by night. Two plants closed at midnight.

Youngstown, Ohio—Five thousand workers quit Sunday. Mills still in operation.

Gary, Ind.—Work suspended in practically all plants. Secretary of the labor organization declared 85 percent of the men out.

Chicago—Six of the Illinois steel companies furnaces were cold.

Birmingham, Ala.—All four plants are operating.

Both Claim Advantage

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Strike leaders and steel companies heads alike claim the advantage today when what is one of the biggest industrial struggles the country has known, was but a few hours old.

William Foster, secretary of the steel workers' committee, claimed that the strike was 90 percent effective. He included the Pittsburg district in this statement.

Foster declared that plants were closed down everywhere.

Steel companies' officials viewed the situation optimistically and asserted that not more than 15 or 25 percent of their men had answered the strike call.

Ninety-five percent of the American employees reported for work as usual this morning. All of those striking were foreigners or common laborers.

RESOLUTION DEMANDS STRIKE INVESTIGATION

Washington, Sept. 22.—Investigation of the steel strike was proposed today in a resolution introduced by Senator Kenyon, Iowa.

The resolution directs the senate committee on education and labor to ascertain the reasons for the strike and whether any federal action should be taken to meet the situation.

OUTSTANDING FEATURES OF THE STEEL STRIKE

Cause of strike—refusal to recognize unions.

Demands of unions—right to bargain for workers as to hours, wages and working conditions.

Approximate number of employees in 1918—268,710.

Number of plants involved in strike order—145.

Territory covering big strike—Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Colorado and Alabama.

Wages—Unskilled labor, lowest $3.50; highest $6.00. Skilled labor, lowest $7.00; highest $70 to $80 a day.

Companies involved—United States Steel Corporation and its subsidiaries.

A blast furnace was closed down here, officials said, but they claimed that not a single finishing mill closed.

It was estimated that about 500,000 steel workers in Allegheny county were working, but on the basis of the steel companies' figures from 10,000 to 25,000 are on strike.

E. H. Gary Refuses To Talk

New York, Sept. 22.—Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the steel corporation, received newspaper men at his office here today but made no statements. He said that if any statement was issued today it would be before three o'clock.

Gary's manner indicated confidence that the strike situation would mean little loss of money to the corporation.

About 50,000 Out in Ohio

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Between forty and fifty thousand steel workers are on strike in Ohio today, according to reports by union and steel men's officials and police.

Approximately 200,000 are out in Cleveland, according to reports and in Canton only 400 are out.

Reports from Youngstown stated strikers numbered all the way from five to twenty thousand.

SAYS 35 PERCENT OF GARY MEN ARE AT WORK

First Statement by Officials of Steel Works in Northern Indiana Make This Claim

CITIZENS AID GARY POLICE

(By United Press.)

Gary, Ind., Sept. 22.—Between 50 percent and 85 percent of the 22,000 steel workers in the Calumet district answered the strike call today.

Union officials claimed 18,000 men walked out. Company officials admitted that less than 11,000 reported for duty.

The first statement issued by officials of the Gary works of the Illinois Steel company today said that 35 percent of the men are at work. Many of those who stayed out today have called on the telephone and said that they will be back tomorrow. The situation is expected to improve gradually. The officials declared the situation looked favorable and that they were satisfied.

Union leaders claimed a big victory when the engineers joined the strike. Ninety-five of the engineers were out. The strike completely tied up the plant.

No disorders in the entire district were reported. Police officials stated that they have not made a single arrest.

The machine was found in the barn belonging to Josiah Bishop, in North Main street, having been placed in their some time Saturday afternoon. THIRD STREET TO BE FINISHED THIS FALL

Roy Evans, Foreman, Says Has Assurance of Obtaining Enough Cement to Complete Job

ANOTHER CAR IS ON THE ROAD

Enough cement has been obtained to finish the Third street improvement, and there are now prospects of the street being completed and opened before cold weather, according to an announcement today by Roy Evans of Casey, Ill., foreman of the job.

Mr. Evans told Councilman A. P. Wagoner a few days ago that if a shipment of cement did not arrive in a few days, he was going to ship the mixer to Illinois where the man by whom he is employed has another contract. Fortunately, however, he has assurances of receiving enough cement to complete the contract. One car load has reached Rushville and another is on the road.

George C. Miller of Lebanon, who has the contract for paving Third street, has sublet the contract to J. W. Echison of Casey, Ill., by whom Mr. Evans is employed.

SON AND 4 DAUGHTERS LEFT

Mr. Peck resided in Orange township all of his life and was one of the respected citizens of the community. He was engaged most of the time as a contracting carpenter, although he owned a farm and managed it part of the time.

LAND OWNER ASKS FOR AN INJUNCTION

David M. Templeton Alleges Tenant on His Place Will Not Allow Him to Sow Wheat

JEHU M. CRAIG IS DEFENDANT

Threatens Harm to Anyone Who Comes on Farm For That Purpose—Lease Expires March 1

A new suit has been filed in circuit court, it being the case of David M. Templeton vs. Jehu M. Craig, asking temporary injunction and damages to the extent of $500. A request was also made, asking that a restraining order be issued until further notice could be served. Judge Sparks granted the restraining order, until tomorrow at nine o'clock.

Mr. Templeton's complaint alleges that Craig has leased by contract, his 160 acre farm, from March 1, this year, to continue for one year. Through some kind of trouble, it seems that Mr. Templeton wishes to change tenants, but does not want to do so until the expiration of the contract.

In the meantime, the complaint states, Mr. Templeton wishes wheat sown in an 80 acre tract, and as the land belongs to him, he has instructed Fred Mohles to put the field in wheat. The present tenant, Mr. Craig, threatens to kill or do great bodily harm, according to the complaint, to anyone who attempts to sow the wheat. Mr. Templeton says that he is not violating any part of their contract by having the field placed in wheat by some one other than the tenant, as the tenant will be removed on March 1, and would not be there at harvest time.

Mr. Templeton asks $500 damages, caused by the delay and trouble with the tenant, and further asks that a temporary injunction be granted.

Nothing was going on in court today, but the case of the state against Herman Osborn, Ralph Gard and Leslie Sailor, will be tried tomorrow. The young men are charged with assault and battery, and is an appeal from the police court, where Osborn received a sentence of 90 days in the penal farm.

The alleged assault was on Irene and Violet Maple, who were struck by rocks one Saturday night a few weeks ago, while in company with other boys on their way home. The attorney for the defendants took an appeal on August 7th, after a sentence had been given the boys.

The grand jury meets again tomorrow, at which time it is expected several reports, calling for indictments will be issued.

RESTAURANT FIGHT LEADS TO ARREST

Charley Pea is Held on Charge of Assault and Battery—In Fight With Owen McKee

TO BE ARRAIGNED LATE TODAY

A fight in the Peoples restaurant, owned by John Kelley, in West Second street, about nine o'clock Saturday night, caused quite a lot of excitement, and resulted in the arrest of Charley Pea, who assaulted Owen McKee Jr., who is an employee in the restaurant.

The fight started over some trouble which it was reported to have been developing for some time and on Saturday night, Pea made an assault on McKee. The arrest was made this morning by Police Chief Wilfong, who filed the affidavit, alleging assault and battery. Pea was to be arraigned this afternoon at four o'clock in police court.

TOURING CAR IS STOLEN

The Shelbyville police have notified surrounding cities, and a description of the car has been sent, in an effort to find the stolen machine.

CEREMONY MARKS END OF M. E. DEBT

Final Note Against Congregation is Burned at Rally Services Held in Arlington Sunday

WEATHER LESSENS CROWD

The Rev. Daniel Ryan is Instructed to Ask For Return of Pastor, F. M. Westhafer

The Rev. W. B. Crawley of the Christian church of Arlington, gave the principal address at the rally day service and ceremony of burning the late note of the M. E. church debt, held at the Arlington M. E. church yesterday. On account of the inclemency of the weather, not as large a crowd as was expected attended the service. Mr. Crawley's address, which was a very forceful sermon, was followed by a short speech by a former pastor of the church, the Rev. Daniel Ryan of the Garthage M. E. church.

At the morning and evening services the Rev. F. M. Westhafer delivered the addresses, which were the last before the annual conference held this week in Indianapolis. At noon a bountiful pitch-in dinner was served and people were present from Pleasant Ridge, Manilla, Wayne county and Franklin.

The services Sunday, in addition to observing the cancellation of the church's debt, also marked the end of the conference year. On motion of the members of the official board, at the afternoon service, the Rev. Mr. Ryan was instructed to carry the greetings of the congregation to Bishop Anderson and the district superintendent, Dr. J. M. Walker, at the annual session of the Indiana conference, which opens in Indianapolis tomorrow, asking for the return of the Rev. Mr. Westhafer as pastor of the Arlington church. All present, of all churches, signified their desire to have him remain another year.

There were two accessions to the membership at the morning service. At the afternoon meeting the Rev. Mr. Ryan, who was formerly pastor at Arlington, was the guest of honor. The congregation sang "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner", and the ceremony of burning the last note on the church's indebtedness was conducted by the trustees, T. Royal Lee, S. S. Offutt and Fred McFrittridge. The Rev. Mr. Ryan then led in a prayer of thanksgiving.

Five Clerks Make Resolutions After Being "Stung" on Chickens

Five clerks in a Rushville dry goods store have resolved to buy no more chickens until the fowls are weighed before their eyes. Saturday they bargained for five 3-pound chickens from a farmer's wife, and paid thirty cents a pound, on foot, for them. When the chickens which had been dressed, were delivered, they weighed from a pound and eight ounces to a pound and ten ounces each, including the newspapers in which they were wrapped. The clerks learned that the shrinkage should not amount to more than a half pound on chickens of that weight. The proprietor of the same store bought one alive, which was represented to weigh three pounds, but the actual weight was two pounds and eight ounces, including the flour sack in which it was delivered.

Is it a thoroughly lubricated machine, owned and controlled by one man, who is able to manipulate it as he sees fit with figure-heads to do his bidding by push button control?—

OR—

Is it an organization of men animated by ideals of service, human sympathies, and a far seeing understanding of conditions in a highly specialized branch of industry?

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is owned and controlled by 4649 stockholders, not one holding as much as 10 percent of the total stock.

It is managed by 7 men, who, individually, have won their way to the top by giving each day the kind of service which the public found it profitable to pay for.

The policy of the Company in its relation to the public is laid down by these 7 men, which is to render the individual consumer in the eleven states served by the Company the kind of service they demand and find it profitable to pay for.

It is the earnest desire of these 7 men, holding the trusteeship of management, to intensify the usefulness to the public of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), and to broaden the scope of its service so that the Company may discharge its obligations as a public servant in a manner satisfactory to the stockholders and beneficial to the world at large.

Food and Frills.

We are told that there are not enough people engaged in the copious production of essentials, and that this partly accounts for high prices.

We got around the difficulty during the war by forbidding the production of nonessentials. If this were done now it would throw a number of people out of work, but they would soon turn to the production of essentials, and supply the shortage.

Unfortunately, there are many of us who demand the nonessentials, and are thus responsible for the shortage of essentials. The richest man can consume only a small quantity of food, and wear only a few clothes. But he can soak a fortune in jewelry and automobiles, and it is the wages spent in producing commodities that creates the profiteer and sends prices up.

Cut out the luxuries to a reasonable extent. We must choose between jewels and Johnny-cake, between pearls and pie.

Balance of Power.

The troubles about England's six votes to America's one really started in the British colonies. The English do not worry much about representation at the league council. They care very little, when the truth is told, about the league at all.

It was a South African who made the stipulation. The British colonies are not suspicious of America so much as they are of England. And they do not mean to be bound by England's vote any more than they do by America's. They want votes of their own. It is even possible that they will be found voting with America instead of with England at the council.

When Cops Walk Out

We may congratulate ourselves in Rushville that we do not employ a large police force. If the sheriff of the county went on strike, it would probably not result in promiscuous looting by hoodlums up and down the streets.

This has been the condition in Boston, where the police force recently declared a strike; and all the local toughs and hard-boiled eggs went out on a window smashing expedition.

If we have need for police action on a grand scale in Rushville all that is necessary is to muster a posse of amateur policemen, who do not belong to a union, and are not likely to strike. They will simply do the job that is to be done, and return to their ordinary avocations upon dismissal.

We have this advantage over places like Boston, Chicago, New York, and other large towns: with us law and order from part of everybody's responsibility. Reinforcement of the law is not a trade in which a few professionals specialize. We are all ready to do police work here, because it is natural for us to insist on public orderliness—because we are paid to maintain

Miss Amy Ellerman, the famous contralto who will appear at a concert here next week, is noted among her many friends and admirers as the "self-made girl." She is thoroughly typical of the great Mid-West and all who know her say it is impossible not to fall in love with her at sight. Her remarkable character is as winning as her fine voice. Born and raised on her father's ranch near Yankton, S. D., at three years old she was so completely at home on the back of a horse she would ask to be put on the wildest bronchos and would outgallop her father in rounding up the herds. Before she had reached her teens she could cast a lariat and throw a steer as intrepidly and neatly as the best of the cowboys. She could also be as quick with a pistol and deadly with a rifle as the coolest and oldest hand.

Her unusual independence of character became evident equally early. She always preferred boys' clothing and dressed as a girl only at home in the evening or when visiting. Rather than accept "pin money" without earning it she obtained all the money she needed by following the huskers during harvest and selling her gleanings to her father at so much a bushel.

One of her greatest pleasures, now outside of her music, is to return for a vacation to the old ranch life, and dressed as a man, put in a spell at broncho busting or, with big lip boots on, go duck hunting. The Fleming Sisters Trio appear jointly with Miss Amy Ellerman at the Main Street Christian church, Friday, October 24—Admission Free.

Amusements

Constance Talmadge in The Shuttle.

Constance Talmadge, now in California, where she is working during the winter months, recently paid a visit to the Hollywood studios, and hobnobbed for several hours with numerous old friends.

She was greeted with acclaim by Douglas Fairbanks and his director, Alan Dwan, while Frank E. Woods, supervisor of productions, welcomed her with open arms. Albert Cowles, a member of the scenario department and Harvey Thew, who wrote the scenario for "The Shuttle" with Margaret Turnbull, were also among the welcoming party.

Miss Talmadge visited the studio where Mary Pickford was at work, and not only spent a few minutes chatting with her, but also renewed acquaintance with Marshall Neilan, her director.

"One of the strangest things I saw on visiting Hollywood," declared Miss Talmadge, "was the skeleton of the great 'Intolerance' set about which cluster so many memories of the days when I played the Mountain Girl. Literally, Babylon has not yet fallen. It stands there, colossal but its glory and rich color are missing like people who once gave it life. It made me feel sad for a time."

Constance Talmadge will appear here in "The Shuttle" at the Princess Theatre tonight; it was adapted from the novel of the same name by Frances Hodgson Burnett, directed by Rollin Sturgeon, and is being distributed by Select Pictures.

16th Episode Tonight

The sixteenth episode of "The Red Glove" will be shown at the Mystic theatre tonight, together with an L-Ko comedy, "Ladies in Line," a news reel and a fashion picture. The latter film will be repeated tomorrow, and will share a place on the program with "The Midnight Patrol," a seven-reel feature picture telling a vivid story of Chinese life in a western city. This feature will also be shown Wednesday with an Arbuckle comedy.

At the opening of "The Midnight Patrol," Sergt. Duncan, in charge of the Chinatown police squad, is killed in a raid on the den where Fu Wang, a Chinese who rules like a czar and shares his illegitimate profits with Jim Murdock, a political boss. Duncan is killed and his assistant, Terrance Shannon, takes his place. Murdock and Wu Fang try to discredit him because they fear his power.

About this time Murdock and Wu Fang are expecting a shipment of opium. In order to safeguard its arrival they tell Shannon that they are holding Patsy O'Connell, a young lady whom Shannon admires, captive in Wu Fang's den and that she will be harmed unless Shannon keeps out of the way until the shipment of opium is unloaded. Terrance believes that duty comes first however, and leads a raid on Wu Fang's underground den. He is assisted by "Chink" Ross, a white man who has been thrown down by Wu Fang.

When Shannon breaks into Wu Fang's den, Fang grapples with him and overpowers him. Fang and his assistants then prepare to throw Shannon into a pit filled with live rats. Just at this time O'Shea rushes in with the reserves and saves Shannon and Patsy O'Connell from the horrible death that Wu Fang had planned for them. Wu Fang is killed and Murdock is captured. Shortly after this fate Shannon is made chief of police, but not until he and Patsy have discovered their love for each other.

It was late October in Flanders when the King's Own advanced in spite of machine gun and shrapnel fire and a drenching rain. A small town, or rather the remains of it, was taken, one of the Belgian villages that had stood the shock of four years of shell fire. True to tradition the Irish Guard led the way. Upon entering the ruins of the once beautiful village, a fiery-headed Irish boy was neatly scalped by the last machine gun fire of the hurrying Hunns. He fell unconscious in the street. Two buddies from the Emerald Isle administered first aid. Eventually, he rallied to the restoratives and opened his hazy blue eyes. Somewhat dazed he looked about him.

"Where am Oi?" was his first question.

Pat slowly turned his head, viewed the ruins about him and remarked:

"How long have we had Home Rule?"

Brining Preserves Food When Other Means Fail

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

One of the oldest methods of preserving food is by salting or fermenting it. When the rush of late summer work finds the housekeeper with more garden products on hand than she can can or dry, brining is the solution of her difficulties. A bucket of brine will keep the extra vegetables until a less busy season when more time is available to prepare them for use.

All that is necessary for brining, U. S. Department of Agriculture specialists say, is a scalded crock or bucket, a brine made of two pounds of salt to one gallon of water, a cloth and plate or board, and a heavy weight. For best results vegetables should be blanched in hot water five minutes before brining. For some vegetables a weaker brine will do. With string beans and a few other vegetables, a weaker brine with a little vinegar added will give satisfactory results.

Wash the product, if it is not blanched, and put it in the container: add the brine, put the cloth over the top and place the weighted board or plate on the material being brined to hold it below the surface of the liquid. Brine of this strength will act as a preservative without causing any change in the vegetable.

When the vegetables preserved in this way are desired for use they may be brought back by soaking a few hours in fresh water. They are then ready to prepare for table use.

Dandelions, beet tops, turnip tops, spinach, chard, kale, cabbage, string beans and green peas and corn are vegetables which may be satisfactorily preserved by this method.

When vegetables are packed dry with two or three pounds of salt to every hundred pounds of material, as in the making of sauerkraut, or are covered with a brine, as in the preparation of dill pickles, the sugar in the vegetables is extruded from them and fermented by the bacteria that are present. After this action has gone on to a certain point, enough lactic acid is formed to kill the bacteria and to prevent any further change in the material, provided certain precautions are taken to prevent the growth of mould. The lactic acid gives the fermented material a characteristic flavor which is relished by many and it has no harmful effect. It is the same acid which is in sour milk.

If vegetables are covered with a very strong brine or packed with a fairly large amount of salt there is no lactic-acid fermentation and the growth of other forms of bacteria and moulds are prevented.

In vinegar pickling the acetic acid of the vinegar acts like the lactic acid and prevents the growth of bacteria or moulds.

The essential points in making sauerkraut are the use of only mature, sound cabbage, scrupulous cleanliness throughout the process, and proper care of the surface of the brine after fermentation is completed.

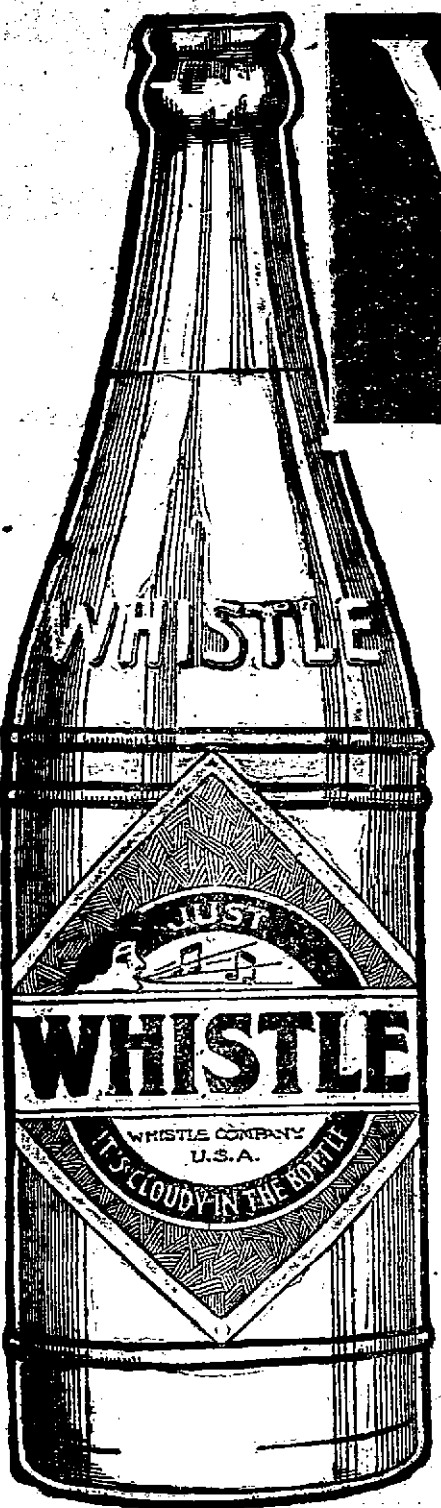

In making sauerkraut for home purposes the outer green leaves of the cabbage should be removed, just as in preparing the head for boiling. In addition all decayed or bruised leaves should be discarded and the core removed. If an instrument for this purpose is not available, it is advisable to quarter the heads and slice off the part of the core remaining on each quarter. The cabbage should be shredded by one of the hand-shredding machines sold for such purposes, or if one is not available the heads may be cut into thin slices with a saw cutler or a large knife.

The shredded cabbage should be packed immediately into a perfectly clean water-tight receptacle, such as a cider or wine barrel, keg or tub. As it is packed into the receptacle add salt in the proportion of 1 pound of salt to 40 pounds of cabbage, distributing it evenly throughout the cabbage. Experiments have shown that approximately 24 pounds of salt to each 100 pounds of shredded cabbage give the best flavor to kraut.

When the barrel or crock is nearly full the cabbage should be pressed down as firmly as possible and covered with a clean board cover. It is advisable but not essential that clean cloth be placed over the cabbage before the cover is put into place. The salt soon extracts a considerable amount of the cabbage juice from the cabbage and a sufficient weight of clean brick or stone should be added to cause the brine to rise up to the wooden cover. Set the container aside until fermentation is complete, skim off any scum, that forms, and protect the surface by pouring over it a layer of paraffin.

If paraffin is not added, the scum develops very rapidly in warm weather and soon destroys the acid of the brine and the sauerkraut beneath. If the sauerkraut is made in the fall and stored in a cool place, there is no absolute necessity of a layer of paraffin, since low temperature will prevent the growth of the organism which destroys lactic acid and causes decomposition. No doubt the popular idea that sauerkraut made from early cabbage will not keep is based upon the fact that the fermentation of sauerkraut made from such cabbage occurs in warm weather and the rapid growth of scum soon destroys both brine and kraut if the surface is not properly protected.

Best Players.

PLAYERS CHANGE ABOUT

Every Team in Big League Has Men
Who Have Been With Giants
Years Before

New York, Sept. 22.—A popular
pastime at the end of any baseball season is to comb over the teams in the National league and point out
what former Giants did in the way
of helping out rival clubs.

Small chance to overlook any club
in this kind of a summing up. Every club in the league, with only one exception, is burdened with ex-New Yorkers. A pennant could fall to any of them and not escape the sympathy of the statistic fiend who figures how much the former Giant
had to do with the victory.

On the Cincinnati club are Heinie
Groh, Eddie Rousch, Bill Rariden
and Slim Sallee.

Boston has on its payroll Hank
Gowdy, Dick Radolph, Cecil Caesay,
Arthur Wilson, and Walter Holke.
John Paul Jones is due to report
there after the International league
season.

Ferd Schupp, Milton Stock and
Leon Ames are former Giants now
with the Cardinals.

The Cubs have Fred Merkle and
Dave Robertson.

With the Phillies are Gene, Paullette, George Smith, Eddie Sicking,
and Jack Adams.

The Dodgers have Ernie Krueger,
Rube Marquard.

But also take a look at the Giant club. What a list! It includes Glase, who was originally a Yankee, and has come through the mills
of the White Sox, Buffalo Federals
and Cincinnati Reds.

Al Baird, second basemen, all are of the McGraw school, as is Arthur Fletcher, shortstop.

Heinie Zimmerman is a New York product, but played his first big league baseball under Frank Chance with the Cubs.

George Burns and Ross Young of the outfield are of the Giants originally, but Benny Kauff played with the Indianapolis American association club and with the Federal league club of the same city.

Frank Snyder came from St. Louis, and Miguel Gonzales started with Cincinnati. Lew McCarty came from the Dodgers. Earl Smith is doing his first year in the majors as a Giant.

Rube Benton came from Cincinnati. Arthur Nehf emigrated from Boston. Jess Barnes also deserted the Braves. Poll Perritt was a Cardinal. Jean Dubue came from Detroit. Phil Douglas was sold by the Cubs.

are buried at public expense.

28 HOGS PENS FOUND IN THE CITY LIMITS

Crusade For Better Sanitary Conditions in Rushville Reveals This State of Affairs.

FORCE OWNERS TO MOVE THEM

The crusade for better sanitary conditions in Rushville, which is being waged by Dr. J. B. Kinsinger, secretary of the city board of health, and Inspector, Frank Havens, has revealed some startling things, as it was found that there were 28 people within the city limits who were guilty of having hog pens.

Inspector Havens announced today that a complete clean up of the hog pens have been made, and that most of the people were given three days in which to make the necessary change. In the future if any pens are found within the city limits, the owner will be arrested, as it is a violation of the city ordinances. The clean up work will continue until the Health Officer is satisfied that the conditions here are alright for the winter.

Bonnie Jean Beale, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Beale, entertained a number of her little friends Saturday afternoon, honoring her third birthday. The rooms were decorated in the color scheme of yellow and green. The birthday cake, with three yellow candles and the Jack Horner Pie, were the decorations for the table. Dainty place cards marked the places for the following guests: James Greisser, Janet Mauzy, Guy Clark, Elizabeth Fleehart, Jack Gunning, Lowell Green, Jr., Bonnie Jean Moore, Doris Crum, Martha Baxter, Frances Beale and Janice Schmidt of Newcastle. Children's games were played during the afternoon.

Mrs. Ernest Staida will be hostess for the members of the Loyal Daughter's class of the Main Street Christian church tomorrow evening at her home north of the city. All members who are planning to go, are requested to meet at the church before seven o'clock and machines will be provided to take them to Mrs. Staida's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wellman delightfully entertained the following guests at a dinner party yesterday at their home south of the city, Mr. and Mrs. Logan and daughter Rebecca.

Many Prominent Men Come Out for Tanlac

Mayors, Judges, Bankers,
Lawyers, Doctors, Editors
and Ministers
Indorse It

FEEL IT THEIR DUTY TO TALK

They Come Forward and Unhesitatingly Tell Suffering Humanity
What Celebrated Medicine Has
Done for Them

IT is seldom, indeed, that men of prominence, especially men holding high public office, willingly express their indebtedness publicly to a proprietary medicine. Many prominent men, however, including supreme court judges, mayors of our leading cities, prominent state and county officials, bankers, lawyers, doctors, editors, leading educators, government officials and even ministers of the Gospel have deemed it their duty to come forward and tell the people what Tanlac has done for them.

These well-known men of affairs have recognized in this medicine a new discovery and a scientific triumph in the medical world. It is a well-known fact that these splendid indorsements have been given Tanlac time and time again and they will continue to be given just as often as new tests of its powers are made; and it also explains why numbers of the big drug firms of the country are ordering it exclusively in carload lots.

Doctor Prescribes It

Dr. J. T. Edwards, of Fayetteville, Ga., one of the best-known members of the medical profession in the state of Georgia, makes a statement that will undoubtedly produce a profound impression throughout the country.

"In my thirty years of actual practice as a licensed physician in the state of Georgia," says Dr. Edwards, "I have never seen anything to equal Tanlac as a medicine to produce results. I have no hesitancy in recommending this medicine and I am prescribing it for my patients almost every day."

Noted Texan Talks

Hon. Archie R. Anderson, ex-sheriff of Harris County, Texas, is unquestionably not only one of the best-known, but one of the most popular men that ever held office in Texas. He served the people in this important office for 15 consecutive years.

"I had the worst form of indigestion, suffered all the time from gas on my stomach and was continually belching up undigested food," said Mr. Anderson. "I suffered with neuralgic pains of the worst sort and nothing seemed to help me except in a temporary way."

"I began to feel better after taking my first bottle of Tanlac and have just now started on my third. I am a different man already."

H. W. Hill, president of one of the leading banking institutions of South Pittsburg, Tenn., and one of the most successful bankers and business men in Tennessee, said:

"I suffered from rheumatism and other ailments for many years and Tanlac has done me more good than anything I ever tried. I now wake up in the morning feeling fine."

"I'm telling all my friends about Tanlac and am recommending it to them, regardless of their age and trouble."

Dr. G. W. De LaPerriere of Winona, Ga., is not only one of the best-known physicians and druggists in the State of Georgia, but is also a man of extensive property and influence, ranking as one of the leading citizens of that entire State. He says:

Former Mayor Recommends It

Hon. Frank V. Evans, of Birmingham, Ala., Makes Strong Statement

ONE of the latest additions to the large and rapidly growing list of prominent men who have publicly indorsed Tanlac for the good it has done them, is the name of Hon. Frank V. Evans, former Mayor of Birmingham. Mr. Evans is one of the best-known men in public life in Alabama today, being at one time editor of one of the South's greatest newspapers, the Birmingham Age-Herald. He was also examiner of public accounts of Alabama. In telling of the benefits he had derived from Tanlac, Mr. Evans said:

"For years I suffered with gastritis and indigestion in the worst form. I was habitually constipated and had pains in my shoulders and headache continually. My appetite left me almost entirely and everything I would eat hurt me. Finally I got to having awful attacks of acute indigestion, palpitation of the heart and smothering spells. For a long time I would have one or more of these spells every night and I would wake out of my restless sleep gasping for breath."

"I bought a bottle of Tanlac and to my surprise and gratification I began to feel relief after the first few doses. I kept taking the medicine and now my recovery is simply the talk of Birmingham."

section. He has been in the drug business in Winder for 25 years.

Recently Dr. De LaPerriere wrote:

"Our people are much enthused over the beneficial effects of Tanlac and I desire to say that it is the most wonderful seller I ever had in this store."

Other prominent men who have indorsed Tanlac are:

Professor Elmer Morris, of Dover, Tenn.; Professor W. A. Wood, of the Central Graded Schools, Winder, Ga.; C. C. Cooper, president of the Georgia Home Cotton Oil Co., Lawrenceville, Ga.; Hon. S. S. Shepard member of the Atlanta city council; Hon. George Samuel Riley, former Chief of Police in Macon, Ga.; Hon. C. G. Lavender, register of Williamson County, Tennessee; Dr. W. H. Brown, 4822 Charlotte Ave., Nashville, Tenn., founder and president of the Tennessee Protestant Home for Girls; John F. Carroll cotton mill superintendent of Chattahoochee and Atlanta; Hon. B. F. Whittington, Judge of the Rollston Court, South Omaha, Neb.; Geo. L. Bedford, Traffic Manager for the Gustin Bacon Manufacturing Co., Kansas City; Mr. James Taylor, Illinois State Mine and Mineral Inspector, residing at Peoria; Rev. W. C. Norton, pastor of the Wesley Memorial church of Jacksonville, Fla.; Rev. E. G. Butler, pastor Central Baptist Church of Muskogee, Okla.; Hon. R. W. Damon, attorney of Tacoma, Wash.; Hon. C. W. Mangum, of Atlanta, for three terms sheriff of Fulton County, Ga.; Rev. J. H. Dunn, pastor of the Church of Christ, Spokane, Wash.; Judge G. W. Kyser, 1204 W. 9th St., Austin, Texas, and hundreds of others in every part of the country.

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.; in Milroy by Dalman of extensive property and influence, ranking as one of the leading citizens of that entire State. He says:

CAMPAIGN FOR FUND COMPLETED

Prospects Are That The Roosevelt
Memorial Campaign Will Soon
be Oversubscribed

INDIANA'S SHARE $200,000

The Week of October 20 to 27th Has
Been Selected as the Period
For The State Drive

Indianapolis, Sept. 22.—With the completion of the state-wide organization that will direct the Roosevelt Memorial Campaign in Indiana, during the week of October 20-27, public interest in an appropriate tribute from this state to the life and memory of the distinguished former president, has grown to such proportions that the Committee, under William C. Bobbs, state Chairman is confident of collecting more than $200,000, which has been fixed as the Indiana share of the national memorial fund. The executive committee of the campaign meets next week and will then pass upon the suggestion made by George Ade that any over-subscription be applied to a suitable, exclusively Indiana memorial. In this connection members of the committee have joined in approving the application of at least a major portion of any over-subscription that may be collected, to the promotion of some sort of welfare work among the boys and girls of the state. This they say would be entirely consistent with the Roosevelt ideal of equal opportunity for the youth of America.

The announcement that the school teachers of the State will be authorized to accept voluntary contributions from Indiana children on Friday October twenty-fourth, has been favorably received, and although it may not be productive of any large sum of money—nor does the committee urge that it should be—it will serve to afford many patriotic boys and girls the opportunity of perpetuating their own names while contributing to the memorial of the former president. The committee has arranged for the enrollment of the names of all juvenile subscribers and the placing of the roll in the corner stone of the Roosevelt memorial at Washington.

Appropriate recitations, songs, and eulogies of the former president will be made a part of the program for Americanization day set aside by resolution of the State Board of Education, for Friday, October twenty-fourth. E. U. Graff, Superintendent of the Indianapolis Public Schools, is chairman of the committee in charge of the preparation of a program, which will be submitted to every teacher in Indiana and which will be the general outline of state-wide exercises in the public schools.

NEW PLAN WITH SERIES MONEY FOR THIS YEAR

Three Leaders of the League Will
Share in Receipts—Money of
First Five Games to be Pooled

REDS FIELD IS NOT LARGE

Cincinnati, Sept. 22.—Cincinnati and the White Sox are not the only teams that will get a slice of the 1919 World Series coin. According to the arrangement this year, sixty percent of the receipts of the first five games will go into a pool, which may be augmented by 50 percent of the player's share of any inter-city post-season series that may be played between the teams finishing second and third in each league.

Seventy-five percent of this pool will go to the 2 teams participating in the world's series, 60 percent to the winner and 40 percent to the loser. The remaining 25 percent of the pool will be apportioned between the second and third teams in each major league, 60 percent to the team finishing second and 40 percent to the club finishing third.

If Cincinnati had the facilities to accommodate an immense gathering it is probable, with the interest that has been shown in baseball all seasons, that the attendance prospects for the

TO HEAR FIFTY-THREE CLEMENCY PETITIONS

State Board of Pardons Also Will
Consider 9 Reopened Cases at
Hearing Opening Today

FOUR MURDERS ASK REPRIEVE

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 22.—Fifty-three new petitions for clemency and nine re-opened cases will be heard by the state board of pardons at its sessions which opened today to continue through the week.

Four men sentenced to death for the murder of Herman Uecker, cashier of the First National Bank at Tolleston, Lake county, who asking clemency. They are Dan Trkulja, James H. Parker, Albert C. Batchelor and Thomas M. Batchelor.

On June 4, the four men together with Nick Trkulja, Lee W. Spears and John Bierlich attempted to rob the bank and the cashier was shot when his hand went under the counter.

Nick and Dan Trkulja were the first arrested in connection with the case, and the latter signed a confession implicating the other men. Nick was the only one pleading not guilty. He was sentenced to two to fourteen years for manslaughter. The four condemned men who are in death cells at the state prison say that Nick Trkulja is the one actually guilty of the murder.

Another interesting case before the board is that of Rae Kraus, in the woman's prison for life for poisoning her stepdaughter, Crystal Kraus, at Hartford City in 1914. This case has been before the board repeatedly and clemency has always been refused.
